

DEDICATION

A school director is a very important force in shaping the course of education. As such, he is also a powerful instrument in guiding the destiny of the state, nation and society. The compensation which he receives is not in money or even in honor, but in the consciousness of having helped as fully as possible in training young men and women for the part which they are to play in American state and national life and for that large part which the United States is to play in the affairs of the world.

This book is respectfully dedicated to the Camas School Board.

The members are:
